Sunday of the Myrrh-bearing Women

When You did cry, Rejoice, unto the Myrrh-bearers, You did make the lamentation of Eve the first mother to cease by Your Resurrection, O Christ God. And You did bid Your Apostles to preach: The Savior is risen from the grave.

Христос Воскрес! Воістину Воскрес!
Christ Has Risen! He Has Truly Risen!

Lord, Jesus Christ, You who traveled throughout Galilee healing the sick, enabling the blind to see and the lame to walk, bring healing to Your people who need it this day. Give peace to the minds of those who are tortured by mental illness and anxiety. Comfort those who are alone in their illness. May Your people reach out to them and all who are in need this day. Send grace to the caregivers, that they might be effective and gentle agents of Your loving mercy. May our sufferings be united with Yours to bring healing to people throughout the world. Amen

THIS WEEK OUR SANCTUARY CANDLES BURN FOR GODS PROTECTION UPON ALL FRONTLINE WORKERS AND THOSE OF ESSENTIAL SERVICES.
WE PRAY THAT THEY STAY HEALTHY AND SAFE.

Today we will commemorate the 34th Anniversary of the Chornobyl Nuclear Disaster with special prayers and a panachyda (memorial service) after Divine Liturgy.

As you may know, recently there was a forest fire burning in the exclusion zone of Chornobyl near the town of Prypiat. The people of Kyiv and the rest of Ukraine are in fear that radioactive particles will be carried in the wind south to the cities near Chernobyl. Let us all pray together for the people of Ukraine and for the souls of those lost and those who continue to suffer because of this disaster.

Please note that we will continue to live stream our Sunday Divine Liturgies on Facebook (St. John Byzantine Ukrainian Church). Please join us every Sunday at 10 a.m.
