

Lenten prayers for the departed (Sorokousty) will be held every Wednesday morning during Lent at 10:00 a.m. If you wish to include any names of any departed relatives in this year's services, please return an envelope marked "Sorokousty" with your list of names of the departed you wish to pray for. If you already have a list and have no new names to submit, please write "Same as last year" on your envelope when you return it.

Stations of the Cross will be every Friday at 7:00 p.m. during Lent. This is a popular devotion used by individuals who, through prayer and reflection wish to follow Jesus Christ on his way to Calvary. It is a wonderful way to pray and meditate to help deepen our understanding of the way of the Cross.

Please join us Wednesdays and Fridays for any or both services.

Bows and Prostrations

When people are moved in other Christian traditions, they might sing, "Halleluiah," or shout "Amen," or drop to their knees in worship, or raise their hands in praise. In the same way, we use movement to express our praise, submission, and awe of God so that our bodies, minds, and souls are acting in unison.

We call these physical acts of prayer reverences or prostrations.

There are certain times in our prayers that express submission, so it is customary to make a reverence at those points. There are other times when an individual feels moved and makes a reverence out of personal devotion, uniting themselves more closely to a petition or prayer.

It is our custom to make a reverence at the beginning and the end of our services and also when the Trinity is invoked, making the Sign of the Cross and bowing from the waist. Outside of the divine services, we generally make a reverence when we begin a prayer, when entering and leaving a church, and when venerating icons and other sacred objects.

Our Lenten reverences consist of bowing from the waist or touching our heads to the ground symbolizing our submission of body and soul to God's will.

2nd Sunday of Lent

Loving God, there is so much darkness in my life and I hide from you.

Take my hand and lead me out of the shadows of my fear.

Help me to change my heart.

Bring me to your truth and help me to respond to your generous love.

Let me recognize the fullness of your love which will fill my life.

Free me from the darkness in my heart.

Lord, Jesus Christ, You who traveled throughout Galilee healing the sick, enabling the blind to see and the lame to walk, bring healing to Your people who need it this day. Give peace to the minds of those who are tortured by mental illness and anxiety. Comfort those who are alone in their illness. May Your people reach out to them and all who are in need this day. Send grace to the caregivers, that they might be effective and gentle agents of Your loving mercy. May our sufferings be united with Yours to bring healing to people throughout the world. Amen.
