

A very sincere thank you to all those who helped in any way with our Christmas Bazaar, those who baked, helped with set up, clean up, those who manned tables, those who donated and wrapped prizes for our raffles, who sold and served food and fruit and a special acknowledgement of Anne Atamanuk, Dora Holubowsky and Mary Kozachenko the Bazaar co-ordinators.

Great job!

24th Sunday after Pentecost

Holy Spirit, you came to us in every language of every culture and every nation.
Pour out your power upon our divisions.
Make us remember that every tongue is a reflection of your creation.
You made our differences become our hope.
And have created enclaves of race, color, and creed.
Bring us back to a place where we can hear you, see you, and feel your presence in every human being.
And we pray for peace among us in Your name. Amen.

Lord, Jesus Christ, You who traveled throughout Galilee healing the sick, enabling the blind to see and the lame to walk, bring healing to Your people who need it this day. Give peace to the minds of those who are tortured by mental illness and anxiety. Comfort those who are alone in their illness. May Your people reach out to them and all who are in need this day. Send grace to the caregivers, that they might be effective and gentle agents of Your loving mercy. May our sufferings be united with Yours to bring healing to people throughout the world. Amen.
