

Our kitchen and our volunteers are a vital part of our parish community. The kitchen not only provides financial assistance to the running of our parish but also acts as a wonderful social meeting place for many of our parishioners. Our kitchen is always a buzz with work being done throughout the week and we are always looking for new people to help with the many food items we prepare. Please read the schedule below and if you are available to help with any of these tasks, we will welcome you with open arms and aprons!

Mondays: 6:30 a.m. - steaming cabbage, peeling of apples 10:00 a.m. - pie dough rolling

Tuesdays: 6:30 a.m. - tarts, rohalyky and preparation for cabbage rolls

Wednesdays: 6:00 a.m. - cabbage rolls, pie, buns, bread baking, peeling & balling of potatoes

Thursdays: 6:30 a.m. - pyrohy pinching & boiling

Fridays: 5:00 a.m. - pie, buns and bread baking

We also make meatsticks, lasagna, borscht and meatpies but only as needed. If you are more comfortable with working in our store, we can always use new people to sell to our dedicated customers.

If you have any questions about what goes on or what is involved with any of these tasks or if you would be willing to organize a group of people to come in at different times to accomplish any of these preparations, please speak with Fr. Anton or Mary Kozachenko.
